

ALPHA CHI RHO
1933 CONVENTION

Rex R. Thompson, Chairman
120 Broadway, New York

August 15, 1933.

Dear Brother,

Here's the last call for the New York Convention, September 7, 8 and 9. Everything is ready now for a bang-up time and we're waiting here to welcome you.

All roads lead to New York. The Penn. Station is opposite the Hotel - or why don't you try the boat trip from Albany or Boston?

If you're going to drive, let me know and I'll send you maps and tourist information.

Anyway - Come on to Convention!

Fraternally,
Rex.

THE THIRTY-FIFTH ANNUAL CONVENTION
Thursday, Friday and Saturday
SEPTEMBER 7, 8 and 9, 1933
Hotel Pennsylvania
NEW YORK

The committee has arranged a full program of entertainment at a cost even below that usually charged in the smaller towns. The Fraternity needs your aid in its biggest emergency since the World War. New York offers facilities for every sort of recreation. You will meet your old friends and make new ones. What more can you ask?

Smoker — THE OPENING EVENT will be a Smoker Thursday night with Phi Chi at Brooklyn Poly as our hosts. There will be no charge.
An evening of informal enjoyment such as only a Convention Smoker can provide -- stunts, games, fellowship and refreshments. Come on over!

Dance — GOOD MUSIC and a swell time at the Dance in Hotel Pennsylvania Friday night will be offered for you and the Girl with the Garnet Lips (or the Sweetheart of Sigma Chi for that matter) at the nominal cost of $2.50 per couple; stags welcome at $1.50. We'll get a knockout date for you if you ask. Tuxedos or white flannels.

Dinner — THE GRAND CLIMAX will be the Dinner at the Hotel
Saturday night. Delicious food, good speakers. Dress as you please.

Sessions — IMPORTANT BUSINESS sessions will be held at the Hotel all day Friday and Saturday morning. Saturday afternoon is free time for you to enjoy New York in any way you prefer. We'll see you at the
